Finnish Labor Against Military Ties With Soviet

Military Pact Strongly Opposed By All Except Communist Elements

DELEGATION'S VISIT TO MOSCOW DELAYED

(BULLETIN)
HELSINKI, March 10.—(INS)—Finnish Labor, with the exception of Communist elements, lined up solidly today against any military ties with the Soviet Union.

The stand by Finland's workers was made known after the Helsinki government disclosed that it is sending a seven-man delegation to Moscow for discussions about a mutual aid pact proposed by Premier Stalin.

Against Military Alliance
First to speak out were 100 representatives of non-Communist laborers in Helsinki. They announced that Helsinki's workers do not want the delegation to Moscow to negotiate any pact which will involve Finland in a military alliance with Russia.

These representatives asserted that the Communists had, attempted to order laborers generally to keep quiet regarding the projected pact because of the great opposition by the majority of workers.

State laborers all over Finland meanwhile declared their opposition to any military pact.

Delay Departure
The workers resolved at the same time not to be pushed into riots or become involved in any other acts of violence which might give police forces cause for action.

The police are under direction of the interior ministry which is headed by a Communist.

Reliable sources said that the Finnish delegation, reported originally to have been scheduled to leave for Moscow by this weekend, will not go to the Soviet capital until March 20.

The departure delay caused speculation that the group's membership might be changed. Premier Mauno Pekkala, designated as head of the delegation, is ill.

Pa Newc Observes

Pa Newc observed a man on Mercer street this morning, with a great amount of faith in the future. He was carrying a new sled, which he had evidently purchased for his youngster. Maybe too, he was doing his Christmas buying early.

A strange apple was brought in to the News by Norman Richeal from a South Side market this morning. The apple was well marked and depicted the head of a human, with eyes, nose and mouth, and a well placed dimple. It is on display in The News lobby.

Another district fire department was getting a new piece of equipment today. The new squad truck was being driven from New York state to the West. The initials on the truck read "Y. F. D." Possibly it was going to Youngstown.

Another of those odd, amusing signs has caught the eye of Pa Newc on a local store. The sign reads "Live Chickens Dressed Free."

More of the downtown street lights are getting their periodical clean up, aiding in a better illuminated city. Outdoor workmen and painters were busy also on Tuesday dressing up the stop signs in various sections of the city.

An unusual amount of broken glass rests at the curb in front of numerous residences and business houses about the city. Homeowners should make an attempt to remove the jagged glass before it becomes imbedded in auto tires.

For the first time in many years, Chris Coulthard, superintendent of Cascade Park, told Pa Newc, that (Continued on Page Two)

Campaign Not Being Made By Gen MacArthur

Spoke As "Private Citizen" In Announcement Made About Presidency

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

TOKYO, March 10.—General Douglas MacArthur announced today that he spoke as "a private citizen" in his declaration of availability for the presidential nomination.

The announcement was made through Col. Marion P. Echols, MacArthur's chief public relations officer, who made it clear that the supreme Allied commander in Japan is not campaigning for the nomination.

In a formal statement to Tokyo news correspondents, Echols asserted:

Nothing To Add

"The statement made by General MacArthur yesterday morning was in his capacity as a private citizen. He has nothing to add to it. It does not change in the slightest the mission and routine of general headquarters solely concerned with conduct of the occupation of Japan."

"With reference to conferences and photos, existing policies will continue; that is, no photos may be taken of correspondents at their request when time permits for background concerning the occupation."

Throughout the occupation, MacArthur has talked with individual correspondents—almost invariably off the record—for background.

Sets Tone For Program

Echols' announcement further set the tone for the austere, detached course MacArthur is expected to follow during the next few months while Republicans are wrangling over a candidate.

MacArthur is practically forced to avoid using any part of his headquarters for campaign purposes. To do so would undoubtedly evoke political criticism that would damage his chances if he should be nominated.

In addition, the articles of war forbid political utterances by candidates in the armed forces.

New Barrier Is Faced On Palestine Partition

By PIERRE J. NUSS
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., March 10.—The United Nations battle for enactment of the Palestine partition plan faced a new barrier today as the aftermath of a clash between the United States and Russia.

U. S. Delegate Warren R. Austin went on record yesterday with a rebuke to Soviet Delegate Andrei Gromyko for "talking out of turn" on the issue.

Austin took exception to Gromyko's remark that "some persons" hesitate to carry out partition. Gromyko added that Russia believes in the speedy enactment of partition while the United States wants to start "from the beginning."

He referred to the latest U. S. move to persuade the Arabs to drop their boycott of the partition plan and join the Security Council discussions.

Austin issued a statement after the four major powers heard Britain on Palestine which said: "The United States has noted with surprise the authorized quotation from the spokesman of the Soviet delegation at Lake Success."

"As a participant in the consultation authorized by the resolution adopted by the Security Council and proposed in agreement with Gromyko, I regret that the Soviet spokesman has sought to prejudice the issues before the process of consultation has got under way."

"As the representative of the U. S. in the Security Council, I can say that my government is interested in facts and in a decision based upon them at the earliest possible date."

Question British
Before the clash, the four major powers fixed a series of questions at Sir Alexander Cadogan, British representative of the mandatory power and elicited only a guarded amount of information.

Senate Seeks To Speed Marshall Plan Action

WASHINGTON, March 10.—(INS)—The Senate set up a schedule of night sessions today to push through the Marshall Plan this week under a time-table aimed at furnishing aid to Europe before the crucial April 18 Italian elections.

Appeals by Senate President Vandenberg (R) Mich. and Secretary of State Marshall were expected to cause House leaders to abandon any plan for including military aid to China, Greece and Turkey in the European recovery measure.

Plan Night Sessions
Acting Majority Leader Wherry (R) Neb. announced that night sessions would begin Thursday if members concurred in an effort to send the ERP bill to the House by the end of the week.

Rep. Eaton (R) N. J., chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee said his group may reconsider (Continued on Page Two)

He warned that abstinence from the elections—particularly out of indecency or cowardice—was "a grave and mortal sin."

The second principle, his holiness stated, was the pressing need for all Catholics to vote "according to their own conscience."

Remain On Strike

PITTSBURGH, March 10.—(INS)—More than 3,200 miners remained idle today in eight coal pits in the Pittsburgh district over minor grievances.

Seven of the mines were the property of the Hillman Coal & Coke Co. Workers at six of these mines walked out in sympathy with strikers at the company's Poland mine, in Green county. About 2,800 are involved.

Governor Dewey Wins Easily In New Hampshire

Six Of Eight Delegates In State Are Captured By New York Governor

OTHER TWO WON

BY H. E. STASSEN

CONCORD, N. H., March 10.—(INS)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York scored a 6-2 victory today over Harold E. Stassen in the fight for New Hampshire's eight delegates to the Republican national convention—in a primary which attracted a record breaking number of voters.

It was the nation's first presidential primary of 1948. Upward of 45,000 voters cast their ballots under favorable weather conditions.

Thus Gov. Dewey and Stassen, a new comer to the national political arena, each have pledged candidates in their fight to win the GOP nomination at Philadelphia. However, four years ago the New York governor captured all eight of New Hampshire's delegates.

Powerful Machine
Gov. Dewey rolled along on the crest of a powerful political machine which extended from the borders of Massachusetts to Canada. He made only one brief personal political visit to Manchester during the campaign.

Stassen, on the other hand aroused more political interest in a personal "grass roots" campaign. He made three tours of New Hampshire prior to the primary.

Dewey captured three of the four delegates at large races, both fights in the second congressional district and split in the first district.

Democrats For Truman
The Democratic primary was without much interest as all candidates of two rival states were pledged to President Truman.

Two delegates on the GOP slate of 11 candidates for delegate at large were pledged to General Dwight D. Eisenhower, who has requested that his name be withdrawn from any consideration for the nomination for president. They finished 10th and 11th.

See Doubt On Suicide Claim

State Department Fails To Recognize Masaryk's Death As "Suicide"

WASHINGTON, March 10.—(INS)—The State department declared today that the mysterious death of Czech Foreign Minister Jan Masaryk "deepens the shadow" cast over his homeland by Communist extinction of Czechoslovak liberties.

The official American statement on Masaryk's death notably failed to recognize the tragedy as "suicide"—the term used by the Communist-controlled Czech information service in Prague.

Some observers interpreted this as meaning that the State department doubts the Communist assertion that Masaryk took his own life.

The rapidly with which the United States view was expressed emphasized the American government's high sensitivity to the situation in Czechoslovakia, most recent nation to be imprisoned behind the iron curtain of communism.

Pittsburgh Cab Strike Ended

PITTSBURGH, March 10.—(INS)—Officials of the Pittsburgh Yellow Cab Company and representatives of the 1,100 striking drivers will meet late today to sign an agreement officially ending the 25 day walkout.

The drivers failed to win a wage increase. Although they did gain some new sick and vacation benefits along with a few improvements in working conditions.

Union pickets were withdrawn last night from their stations in front of company facilities and full taxi operations will be restored by Thursday morning.

Skidding Autos Batter Wall on Square

Above is the latest picture of the ornamental wall around the public square enclosure, after the most recent attack by skidding autos. There are several of the pillars knocked over on the western part of the diamond enclosure. This part of the "diamond" ornamental wall seems to be particularly vulnerable, as the pillars at this location have been knocked over frequently during the past few years. The city rebuilds the pillars, but present weather conditions require modification before the rebuilding can be done.

Senate Hearings On Tax Cut Bill Near Completion

WASHINGTON, March 10.—(INS)—The Senate Finance committee prepared today to conclude hearings on the Republican tax cut bill with prospects pointing strongly toward enactment of a four and a half billion dollar tax reduction over President Truman's veto.

The committee plans to end the hearings late today.

Sen. Millikin (R) Colo., committee chairman, predicted that the group will approve a tax cut of around four and a half billion dollars a year at a closed-door session tomorrow.

For Tax Cut

The committee is expected to vote overwhelmingly for the tax cut. In fact, of the 13 committee members, only one may vote against it. Sen. Connally (D) Tex., is the only member who has steadfastly insisted that all government surplus funds should be used to reduce the public debt now and that a tax reduction would be ill-timed.

Millikin said the committee plans to have the finished bill in legislative language by the end of the week so it can be called up in the Senate Monday, if the European recovery legislation has been disposed of by that time.

He said that Senate debate on the bill should not be prolonged. The committee bill must be approved by two-thirds vote if Congress is to enact a tax cut over the President's veto. Indications are stronger than ever that the two-thirds majority will be obtained.

Man Meets Death In Hotel Fire At Columbus, Ohio

Ninety Others Routed From Apartments As Flames Sweep Small Hotel

COLUMBUS, O., March 10.—(INS)—One man burned to death and 90 other persons were routed from their apartments today when fire swept through the three-story Frances hotel in Columbus.

The dead man was Robert H. Carpenter, 35-year-old railroad fireman, whose body was found in his room on the third floor where the fire apparently originated. A phone was clutched in his hand, indicating that he had attempted to call for help before he was overcome.

Fire Chief Clarence Osborn said he believed the blaze was due to a cigarette. Carpenter was smoking in bed.

Mrs. John S. Crowl Dies In California

Mrs. Mollie Preston Crowl, wife of John S. Crowl, 1815 East Mountain street, Pasadena, Calif., died Monday evening at Pasadena. Death was the result of an extended illness. Mrs. Crowl was a former resident of New Castle.

Survivors in addition to her husband include one son, Charles A. Crowl, Pasadena; two brothers, Jesse H. Preston, this city, and Charles C. Preston, Los Angeles, Calif., and two grandchildren, Pasadena.

Government Issues Statement That Jan Masaryk Ended Own Life

BODY IS FOUND IN COURTYARD

By KINGSBURY SMITH
(European General Manager International News Service)

PRAGUE, March 10.—

Czechoslovak Foreign Minister Jan Masaryk fell to his death today from his apartment window, and the Communist-dominated Czech government announced he had committed suicide.

There was immediate speculation that the tragic death of Masaryk, a non-party minister and son of the late Thomas Masaryk who founded the Czech Republic, might touch off violent outbreaks against the Communist regime.

Body Is Found
Diplomatic sources did not rule out the possibility of civil war.

The body of the 62-year-old Masaryk, son of an American mother, was found in the courtyard of his official foreign office residence, Cernin palace.

The office of Communist Premier Klement Gottwald issued a statement on the death, calling it a suicide.

The Prague radio asserted that Masaryk had been "suffering from depression as a result of attacks by the foreign press."

Statement Issued
The statement from Gottwald's office said:

"Dr. Masaryk, minister of foreign affairs, put a willful end to his life which he dedicated to work for the country and the nation. As a consequence of an ill heart, which was accompanied by insomnia, he decided, probably in a moment of mental disorder, to end his life by jumping out of the window of his official flat to the courtyard of Cernin palace."

"The day before his tragic end, he showed no sign of depression but was, on the contrary, full of liveliness and usual optimism. A close investigation will be made."

The communique was issued through the ministry of information and the Czech news agency at 12:30 p. m.

A visit to the foreign office showed no evidence that any special precautionary measures have been taken against a possible popular demonstration.

There were no usual plainclothes security police and one uniformed policeman.

A pall of gloom and sadness gripped Masaryk's personal staff and all employees of the foreign office.

Seven High Nazi Officers Convicted

NUERNBERG, March 10.—(INS)—Today verdicts were returned against seven high-ranking Nazi S. S. officers in their genocide trial at Nuernberg and all were sentenced to long prison terms.

Six others were acquitted of the genocide charge, but five were convicted of belonging to a criminal organization.

The tribunal announced that it had deliberately refrained from imposing any death sentences because it felt the defendants were "forced" to obey the "brutal orders" of Heinrich Himmler.

Judge Daniel O'Connell of Newton, Mass., filed a dissenting opinion, however, declaring that the prison terms were "too stiff." He urged a reduction of at least several years in each case.

Defense Head To Have Conference

WASHINGTON, March 10.—(INS)—Defense Secretary Forrestal announced today that he will meet with the joint chiefs of staff over the coming week-end to formulate a policy of "who does what" in the event of war.

Forrestal told a news conference that he definitely did not favor a "frozen" plan of action in case of emergency, because, he said:

"In a war you have an enemy. The secretary declared he hoped the weekend conference would dissolve disagreements between the services and develop an overall defense policy."

Arthur Mometer

I talked to a little red robin today, out on the window ledge, he was looking things over since he came back, the trees, the buildings, the hedge. "I tell you," says he as he cocked an eye, "each winter I date with the sun, I fly on south when the breeze is firm, but when the winter is done, it's satisfying to come on home, back to the folks I know, and often the winter is still around here, and often I run into snow. But it's worth the chill and it's worth the snow, to get back to the north to stay, back home where the folks are the ones I know, weather's 40 today."

Ninety-Nine Meet Death In Factories Month Of January

HARRISBURG, March 10.—(INS)—Ninety-nine workers were killed and 10,204 others injured in industrial accidents during January, it was reported today by the state department of labor and industry.

Although injuries increased 8.9 per cent over December, 1947, they represented a 12.5 per cent reduction over the previous January, the department said. Fatalities during December numbered 98, it added.

Seventy-six fatal accidents in January were attributed to the non-manufacturing industry, as were 6044 non-fatal mishaps, according to the department.

The coal mining industry reported 38 deaths; 20 bituminous workers and 18 anthracite miners were killed, the department reported.

Hazardous arrangement and procedure accounted for 5,680 injuries, while defective materials and equipment caused 3,749 others, the department said.

Two Strikes Are Being Continued

PITTSBURGH, March 10.—(INS)—The CIO United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers continued two strikes today in efforts to force Union recognition without use of the Taft-Hartley act machinery.

Approximately 525 workers were out on strike for the third straight day at the Westinghouse Electric Corporation's new plant at Beaver.

A strike among 600 workers at the Mine Safety Appliance Company, Pittsburgh, was in its thirteenth day.

Both companies have demanded the UE-CIO obtain bargaining rights certifications through an NLRB election.

The union, which is barred from NLRB participation due to its refusal to sign anti-Communist affidavits as required under the new law, wants to use an independent agency election to force acceptance of bargaining rights claims.

SENATE SEEKS TO SPEED MARSHALL PLAN ACTION

er its plan for a "single package" assistance bill which would lump military aid to Greece, Turkey and China in the pending measure.

Vandenberg, who heads the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, strongly opposes the inclusion of military assistance because he fears it would delay enactment of the economic recovery legislation. The alternative, suggested at a meeting of the House and Senate leaders Tuesday, would be to handle military aid in separate form.

The discussions gave every sign that the House will give way to Vandenberg's argument. Eaton said the House experts feel that ERP "should be in operation" before the Italian elections, even though there is strong support for putting military teeth into the economic assistance bill.

Waynesburg Excited About New Factory

WAYNESBURG, Pa., March 10.—(INS)—The prospects of the new paper products factory opening in Waynesburg soon has caused scores of people to apply for jobs already.

The building, near completion, is being constructed for Waynesburg, Inc., a group of local business and professional men.

A siding switch on the Monongahela Railway has been installed and the paper company is expected to start moving in its machinery and equipment soon.

Several hundred people will be employed. More than 300 registered for jobs last Monday alone.

Suspend Students Due To 'Holiday'

ROSTRAVER, Pa., March 10.—(INS)—About 200 Rostraver High School students, who took a holiday even if their basketball team did lose, today were under suspension.

Superintendent S. G. Carter said that after Rostraver was eliminated from the WPIAL tournament Monday night, the students demanded the half-holiday planned had the team been victorious. They took it Tuesday morning.

Tuesday afternoon they were informed the holiday had been lengthened—with a suspension as of today.

Word Of Death Of Former Pastor

Dr. Henry K. Denlinger Dies At Age Of 81 After Long Career As Educator

Word has been received here of the death in Hartford, Conn., on March 2 of Dr. Henry K. Denlinger of West Hartford after a long illness. He was 81.

Dr. Denlinger in 1906-1907 was pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city.

Dr. Denlinger had a long and distinguished career as a minister, educator and lecturer. After serving in Presbyterian pulpits in the east and Episcopal settlement work in New York, Dr. Denlinger established the department of history at Connecticut Agricultural college, now the University of Connecticut, in 1920, retiring in 1939. Recently he had been devoting his time to lecturing on behalf of American democracy. He was a graduate of Princeton university.

He leaves a daughter, Miss Dorothy Denlinger of New York City; a son, Sutherland Denlinger, with the occupation authorities in Heidelberg, Germany, and a brother, Sylvan Denlinger of Dade City, Fla.

Attempt Made To Rob Scarazzo Safe

Burglars Pull Off Dial Of One Safe, Enter Second, Scatter Records

Burglars last night failed to get into one locked safe, but went through a second safe, scattering records around, at the Scarazzo Beer Distributing company, South Mill street, police report.

The burglars broke a window on the north side of the building to enter, then pulled electric switches, placed the time of attempted burglary at 8:56 p. m., because the electric clocks stopped.

The dial of one safe was pulled off with an instrument but the intruders failed to get into the safe on the ground floor. However, they got entrance to a safe on the second floor, scattering records it held.

They passed up a small amount of money in the cash register.

The attempted burglary was discovered when Nick Juliano, Temple avenue, John Cherby, East Division street and John Marrangoni, Pollock avenue, employees reported for work at 6 a. m. today.

Pennsylvania Milk Is Safer Than Ever

PITTSBURGH, March 10.—(INS)—Pennsylvania milk is far safer than ever before, according to W. S. Anderson, director of the Pennsylvania Bureau of Milk.

Anderson told 120 tri-state milk inspectors at a forum of the Dairy Supply and Equipment Co., Pittsburgh, that there is no longer any fear of epidemics of typhoid fever, scarlet fever and intestinal disorders once traced to milk.

He credited state and city inspectors, farmers and dairies with improving milk handling process.

Five Charged With Murdering Of Man

CHARLESTON, W. Va., March 10.—(INS)—Five men stood charged today with the murder of William Earl Browning, 33, Charleston coal miner, who died March 4 of a beating.

Police Detective L. B. Warren said an investigation showed the assailants had been drinking heavily.

Arrested yesterday were Lacy Harris, 29; Simon Lot Hicks, 19; Amel, Artis Landers, 32; Lewis Emery Smith, 25, and Fred Clifford Harris.

Altar-Rosary Planning Event

At the Tuesday evening meeting of the Altar-Rosary Society of St. Vitus church, held in the church basement at 8:30 o'clock, plans were discussed for a tureen dinner to be held in May.

Rev. Fr. Vincent Bertoline, assistant pastor opened with prayer, and Mrs. Paul Falla, president was in charge.

On Sunday, March 14, the group will receive Holy Communion in a body at the 9 o'clock mass.

April 13, is the next meeting.

BAD NEWS FOR CHILDREN!

Did you know that 2,000,000 school-age children are not in school—that 350,000. School teachers have left their profession the last five years . . . that 109,000. Teachers hold only emergency (sub standard) teaching permits . . . that today 70,000 teaching positions are vacant . . . that many schools lack equipment and textbooks . . . that many schools are closed?

Your help is needed in solving this urgent crisis. First—check up on educational conditions in your local schools. Second—back up and work with organizations seeking to improve teachers working and living conditions.

TRIP TO LABRADOR SUBJECT OF TALK

College club entertained at a guest night program in the Jamestown Memorial hospital nurses home Tuesday evening with W. E. Clyde Todd, curator emeritus of ornithology of Carnegie Museum as the speaker.

His topic "Unhatched and the Barren Ground" was derived from a most interesting account of his seventeenth trip to Labrador Peninsula in 1945. In telling of it he showed colored motion pictures taken on the trip, which showed a great deal about Eskimo life as well as the bird life which is Mr. Todd's special interest.

Although now retired, Mr. Todd makes the trip every morning from his home in Beaver into Carnegie Museum. He was introduced by Mrs. Roy Williams of the program committee.

The motion pictures were projected by Clay Aubel, of the Pennsylvania Power company.

At the close of the program tea was served with Mrs. Dale Mullen and Mrs. William J. Caldwell pouring.

Hostesses were Mrs. Paris A. Shoaff, Mrs. Dale Andrews, Mrs. Orville Brown, Miss Thelma Howell, Mrs. Richard McKee, Mrs. George Muffley, Mrs. Earl Ruby, Mrs. Hubert Sadler, Mrs. Arthur Walker and Mrs. John Purdy.

THEY DO A JOB

Years ago, before automobiles and good roads invited city people to build in the townships, volunteer fire associations were little heard of except in cities and boros. Today the picture has changed, and for the better.

Here in Lawrence County, as an example, township volunteer fire departments are increasing yearly. Shenango, Union, Neshannock, Slippery Rock, and several other townships have their own equipment, manned by volunteers and already they have saved thousands of dollars in property values.

The old idea was to let the nearby city equipment come out and fight the fire. This was done many times, but time and distances sometimes saw a valuable farm house leveled before the city equipment could get to the scene.

The philosophy of "let George do it" has given way to the idea of self help. The township fire department volunteers are serious minded about their jobs, they work at the jobs, and for it they receive only a sense of self satisfaction.

The most recent example of how seriously the township people take the fire fighting idea is seen in Neshannock township. The citizens are raising $15,000 to purchase a modern 500 gallon pumper. By taxes? Not by any means. They believe that a tax once placed is hard to remove and so they are going down into their pockets for the money.

The volunteer fire department idea for the townships is a sound one. It should be encouraged by every township citizen, not only by moral support but by financial support. And where the citizens are young enough to pile out of bed at three in the morning to fight a fire, some physical support is welcomed.

We would like to see the day when every township, every hamlet in Lawrence County has its own fire fighting equipment. It is good insurance against property loss and against mental worry.

AIR MASTERY PRESENT NEED

After studying the congressional committee report on air policy it is clear why there is no great enthusiasm in this country for the European recovery program.

As late as last fall it was presented by top military leaders as a plan to avoid war. That contention no longer makes sense. There is now no doubt that this nation must keep itself in readiness for war regardless of the amount of aid that is donated to Europe.

Everybody in this country agrees that air power is an imperative. Unless the nation has air power superior to that of any possible attacker, defense is weak at best. The view is gaining adherents in Congress that foreign aid programs must be gradually abandoned and modern aircraft procurement substituted as a defense measure.

Aircraft and aircraft power design is in a high state of flux. What is regarded as modern today will be obsolete tomorrow. The nation's best bet is to place most of its chips on research, place educational orders with industry as new designs are achieved and be in readiness for swift mass production of the very latest in air weapons.

When an approach to the ultimate has been attained in jet propulsion and the derivatives of the atomic discovery, mass production of defensive aircraft will be sane and economical.

Americans have become heirs in their national thinking to the precepts laid down by such major prophets as Billy Mitchell and de Seversky. Air power will in the future transcend infantry and naval strength.

SACRIFICES TO FIRE

The trouble with statistics is that they are difficult to visualize. We read, for example, that 10,000 people are killed by fire each year. But that doesn't come home until we break it down, mentally, into individual tragedies that could happen to us, our families, and the people down the block.

Here are a few headlines, all taken from recent issues of newspapers, that illustrate better than argument the horror of fires:

- "Concord, N. H.—Mother, Son Die in Fire."
- "Sylvester, Ga.—Child Burned to Death in Home Fire."
- "Tigard, Ore.—Fire Kills Two Men."
- "Utica, N. Y.—Eleven in Family Burn to Death."
- "Mallard, Ia.—Farm Hands Meet Death in Fire."
- "Chatham, N. Y.—Five Persons Die from Stove Explosions."
- "Oakaloosa, Ia.—Child Dies in Farm Home Fire."
- "Marietta, Okla.—Farm Woman, Child Perish in Flames."
- "Lewistown, Pa.—Trapped in Her Room, Child Suffocates in Early Morning Blaze."
- "Dillon, S. C.—Two Children Lose Lives When Home Burns."

This list could be continued indefinitely. Great fires make the headlines nationally—but it is the "little," isolated blazes which cause most of the death and damage. And it can happen to you unless you use all precautions possible to prevent fire.

It's smart for a fellow to promise to be faithful to the last—but dumb to mention the others.

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. Ostricher, INS Foreign Director

A determined move to build up the striking power of Britain's air arm of defense was in the making today.

The admiralty submitted its budget to the House of Commons and made the surprising disclosure that the navy has under construction at the present time twelve new aircraft carriers.

This announcement was certain to be welcomed by a large portion of the British population. British newspapers recently have given wide publicity to the weakness of Britain's defenses, particularly in the air and millions have recalled the bitter days of 1940 and 1941.

Planes Are Lacking

Group Commander Max Aitken of the Royal Air Force told the House, a few days ago that he doubted whether Britain could get 100 operational bombers into action at the present time. Another official hazarded the guess that the figure would be closer to 25.

During debates on the air estimates, there was much praise of British progress in jet planes and the like. Chief criticism was against the lack of numbers and the inefficiency of training and target ranges.

Aitken said that his own unit had not fired a single one of its aerial guns for more than two years.

The naval decision to build a large carrier fleet probably stems from belated recognition that two of the greatest units of the British fleet were virtually thrown away in the war with Japan.

The full story of the loss of the battleship Prince of Wales and the battle cruiser Repulse off Malaya has just been told in official admiralty documents.

Lack of Air Cover Cause Japanese torpedo planes sank these two great fighting ships just three days after Pearl Harbor. It was known at the time that lack of air cover was responsible for the disasters.

But it took the official records to disclose that despite all that had been said of battleships' vulnerability to aerial bombardment before the war, these two sea monsters had only one reconnaissance plane space—no fighter or interceptor plane whatever.

Other units of the British Navy fought with the same sort of handicap both in Pacific and European waters. The strategic island of Malta itself was almost lost, and might have been had not the U.S. aircraft carrier Wasp made a risky run through hazardous seas to replenish the island's defense.

The British army is being stripped down to an irreducible minimum for reasons of economy.

The air force likewise has been depleted and this skeletonization has aroused a good deal of alarm among a population that knows only too well how weak London's defenses were when Adolf Hitler's war began. Addition of 12 new carriers to the navy may be the opening chapter in a new era of British preparedness.

Looking At Life

By Erich Brandeis

Of course we all know that women differ from men in their reactions to emotions.

But not until recently has it become scientifically established why, for instance, a man will want to fight when he gets mad, while a woman (or at least most women) sits down and cries.

A couple of St. Louis scientists have found out.

They discovered (don't ask me how) that when men are angry, resentful, hostile or anxious, the linings of their stomachs redden, their digestive juices are produced in more than normal quantity and there is unusual motion on the part of the stomach itself.

"Women, on the other hand, react just the opposite.

When they get emotionally disturbed, the stomach lining gets paler, less digestive juice is secreted and the stomach itself gets unusually quiet.

There must be something to this theory.

When my wife gets sore at me she just shuts up completely, doesn't talk to me for hours and I can't see the slightest motion of her stomach.

But let me get mad. I shout my head off, get a heartburn and I can just feel my stomach going up and down.

The best remedy that both of us have found for these emotional conditions is to let them run their due course and then to kiss and tell each other that we have been darn fools. Strange to say, this remedy seems to be equally efficient for both men and women.

By the way, speaking about emotional differences in men and women, I see where Dean C. Milled Thompson of Vassar College said that modern men are a lost sex, sick with frustration.

She told the National Conference of Women's Organizations that after centuries of boasting about his dominance over women, man now has lost all his cherished marks of superiority.

"He used to have safe refuge when things at home were not to his liking in the corner saloon where the swinging door gave him security from troublesome women," said Dean Thompson.

But now when he seeks comfort at his favorite saloon, whom does he find with feet on the brass rail beside him? Women!

"For long years the barbershop was his last resort and his alone. That, too, he has lost."

Well, maybe we men are frustrated and the lost sex.

Personally I enjoy my frustrations. It's nice to be coddled and cared for by a woman.

And do you know something? I firmly believe that even in the days when men had "dominance over women," they were really little boys at heart, boys who needed their women just as we need them today, but who hid their weakness behind a lot of domineering—and sometimes behind a club.

Some of that old-fashioned domineering will soon drive the women out of the saloons and back into the home, provided men make the home as attractive as they have made the saloons.

Russia is officially mad at France because of so-called "hostile" actions. Or, as they must be saying around the Kremlin these days, "Why the very idea of those Frenchmen trying to stop our boys from taking over their country."

Kansas City Star.

God give us men. A time like this demands strong minds, great hearts, true faith and ready hands; Men whom the test of office does not kill; Men who, the spoils of office cannot buy; Men who possess opinions and a will; Men who can stand before a demagogue And damn his treacherous flatteries without winking; Tall men, sun-crowned, who live above the fog In public duty, and in private thinking; For while the rabble, with their thumb-worn creeds Their large professions and their little deeds, Mingle in selfish strife, lo! Freedom weeps, Wrong rules the land and waiting Justice sleeps.

And to many of the men now in office, there is still time for some of you to turn over a new leaf. There is still time to do a good job for the people. A forget that you want to be re-elected. Do a fine job of keeping government and community running smoothly and you won't have any trouble going on in the political field. forget that you are working for the people and you will suffer long into the night and your waking hours will be spent in the deep shade.

Delay In European Aid

WASHINGTON, March 10.—It is time for the American people to take a long, hard look at the actions of the Republican majorities in the Senate and the House. If it is on the basis of their present performance that the Republicans are asking to be installed in the White House, then that performance should be held up to the light.

In the Senate the Republican leader on foreign policy, Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg, has worked manfully to get the European recovery program adopted by March 15. That deadline is set against the mounting political crisis in Europe and, above all, against the date of the Italian election—April 18. That election may well be, as Vandenberg has said in urgent private discussions, the most important election of the past 50 years and the next 100 years.

Meeting the ERP deadline is supposedly official Republican policy, backed by Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio. But what is happening? The Republican whip, Sen. Kenneth Wherry of Nebraska, has organized a rump revolt in his own party.

Long Debate While he says blandly for the record that there must be no delay, he is keeping careful tabulation of those senators who want to debate hour after hour. He is putting them forward to utter such fantastic moonshine as sane people would hardly believe at this moment.

Two more princes of routed royalty have arrived in New York and Grover Whalen's carnation is beginning to sag from overwork.

At last count we had here, nine princes, two ex-kings, one ex-emperor and three ex-presidents—not counting Hoover.

But things are so confused that some day Whalen will pin on his carnation and run out to meet Hoover.

Most of the royalty has come to see how we conduct an election without Soviet assistance. . . . It's kind of a novelty these days.

De Valera is brushing up on American politics too. I hear he said to Boss Ed Flynn "I can't understand how I lost." And Flynn said "I can't either." Wallace was busy in the Bronx at the time.

But our election system is easy enough to understand. . . . Almost any man can run for president and almost every man does.

National C.I.O. May Clash With Units Over Wallace
Reporters Given Stock, But It's No Good
First Lady Gets Brushoff From Store Clerk

Special to Central Press

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The national CIO is heading toward a clash with its regional units in California.

CIO President Philip Murray quietly sent a circular letter recently to all CIO regional directors and local industrial union councils restating CIO policy in support of the Marshall Plan and in opposition to Henry Wallace's third party.

As a follow-up, John Brophy, CIO councils director, called upon Secretary-Treasurer Philip Connelly of the Los Angeles CIO council to "clarify its position" on political action and the European aid program.

Brophy told Connelly that the Los Angeles council's position on political action is not in harmony with national CIO policy. The Los Angeles council refused to take a stand against Wallace.

Moreover, Harry Bridges, longshoremen's boss and former CIO regional director in northern California, is openly working in behalf of the third party movement.

Some dismissals from the CIO organization's payroll in California may be forthcoming soon.

News reporters had some railroad stock thrown in their laps in the course of the food-gambling story. Senator Elmer Thomas (D), Okla., was telling them that he had unloaded all his stocks when he came under fire for commodity trading, and displayed a handful of worthless securities as evidence that he hadn't had "inside information." He added: "Here, since I'm getting rid of stocks, I might as well dispose of these."

So he dealt the worthless paper—that of a railroad that had gone through a reorganization—to the newsmen.

As the reporters left, one—recalling that testimony indicated that the only loser in the market was an "expert" in economics and world affairs—told the others:

"Now if we just run across a government economist, I betcha we can peddle this stuff."

Mrs. Harry S. Truman is the first lady of the land, but to a Washington department store clerk she is just another customer.

The president's wife was in the silk goods department of a capital store recently around mid-day. She looked over some material, found what she wanted and took her selection to a bored clerk.

"I'd like a yard and a half of this please," Mrs. Truman told the young lady.

With complete non-interest, the clerk replied: "You'll have to see another clerk. It's time for me to go to lunch."

Without any show of displeasure or of being irked, Mrs. Truman calmly said: "I'm sorry, but that's all right."

She turned to a young sales person nearby who quickly aided the president's wife in making her purchase. At the conclusion of the sale, the young lady asked if the purchase was "cash or charge, please?"

Mrs. Truman opened her purse and displayed the usual credit charge card. With a bug-eyed "thank you" the very-much-interested clerk made the charge and Mrs. Truman departed.

Blood Donor Program New Giant Undertaking Of American Red Cross

The American Red Cross National Blood Program is the one new activity to be financed through the 1948 Red Cross Fund.

This will be a far-reaching project under which blood and its derivatives will be supplied to the entire nation without charge for the products. This new program will cost an estimated $10,000,000 during the coming fiscal year.

While it may take five years for the program to become fully operative, some 20 or 30 major blood centers are scheduled to open in 1948. Pittsburgh is one of these centers scheduled for 1948, and Lawrence county can anticipate this program to be launched this coming fall. Mobile units will be used to serve areas within a radius of 60 miles from Pittsburgh.

This will necessitate substantial funds for technical equipment, continued research, and professional staff, and a large portion of your contributions this year will be earmarked for this program within this county.

Value of Program

Too much can not be said concerning the value of this program to our community. The excellent quality of modern medical treatment of the sick and injured depends to a considerable degree on the ready availability of adequate supplies of human blood and its derivatives. Today, the use of blood in medical practice has become standard procedure.

Thousands of physicians who served with the armed forces know first-hand the value of having immediate access to blood and plasma for use when and where needed for their patients. Most of these thousands are back in civilian practice now. They have seen the advantage of immediate available blood and plasma in the saving of lives; they want the same for their patients in peacetime medicine.

In addition to the mounting demands for whole blood and plasma, there is a growing demand for the increasing number of products made from blood, such as serum albumin, used in the treatment of shock, certain kidney diseases, and other conditions, and immune serum globulin used for modifying or preventing measles. There are many other such blood derivatives. As yet, science has found no satisfactory substitute for human blood. Unlike many drugs and medicines, blood cannot be reproduced chemically or synthetically.

Procedure To Be Followed

The procedures to be followed in this program are this. The collection of blood which will operate substantially along the same lines as the wartime blood program. The blood collections will be made at a specified center here. Mobile units will then take this blood to Pittsburgh for processing. The local chapter will assure responsibility for enrolling the donors and scheduling the bleedings. In this respect many volunteer workers will be needed. The blood which is taken to Pittsburgh will then be typed, examined, and processed. This will involve highly skilled technicians. The blood will then be returned to the local hospitals for use in the county. The rare blood types will remain in Pittsburgh where they will be obtainable on short notice. This program has met with the approval of the Lawrence County Medical Society and it is with the approval of the medical group that the announcement of this program for fall, 1948, is made.

May it be emphasized no charge will be made to any patient, physician, hospital, or clinic for blood and blood derivatives furnished through the National Blood Program of the American Red Cross. The only charges made to patients in this connection will be that of the physician or hospital for professional services or administering the blood or blood derivatives.

MONEY TALKS

PALM SPRINGS, Cal.—(INS)— The Palm Springs Community Chest was enriched by $2,800 recently because of radio announcer Art Laboe's 120-hour "talkathon." Laboe talked for five days and nights on station KCMJ. Listeners pledged $100 per hour to keep him going. The announcer said he drank 280 cups of coffee during the verbal marathon and added that his longest catnap was 15 minutes.

Humorist To Speak Thursday Evening

'Is America Losing Its Rhythm?' Will Be Topic Of Ed Harding Before Executives Club

ED HARDING

Thursday evening's dinner meeting of the New Castle Executives club in The Castleton will be strictly entertainment. No one will have to think about what Ed Harding is going to say to them, because everything he says will be in a humorous vein. There will be no world headaches, no domestic problems to solve, no politics, no religion, and as far as that is concerned, no off-color stories either, the club members are assured.

Local officers never heard about "collars" till Harding said he would talk about them here, after accepting the club's invitation. The dictionary says collars are a "variety of cabbage that does not gather its edible leaves into a head." So now, they know. Though, whether he expects to be on the sending or receiving end of the collars, Mr. Harding hasn't said. Anyhow, it will be something different from previous dinners, and Harding's manager offers a "money-back" guarantee. If more than three members don't like him.

Harding, it is said, not only acts funny and knows how to tell funny stories, but he looks funny, so the club officers feel that it will be funny if the club members don't think he's funny.

CHOO CHOO

Along about the middle of August we hear the familiar sneezes of the hay fever victims. They have a very uncomfortable time. Their eyes get red and full of tears. They sneeze and puff and wheeze. They have no rest from their troubles night or day. In recent years we have learned that their trouble is caused by the pollen from plants. Rag weed seems to be the most common offender.

Golden Rod formerly was blamed for causing hay fever but it has been found to be not guilty. Rag weed is very abundant all over this region. The pollen is carried in the air for long distances.

THE WORLD AND THE MUD PUDDLES

the general public. It collects an extra bit in luxury excises, amusement taxes, liquor taxes, gasoline taxes and other items. Its big drain, of course, is the heavy corporation and individual income tax. The burden of this tremendous levy renders a large share of the people impotent to pay substantial increases in State or local taxes; their incomes cannot stand additional strain.

Figures compiled by the United States Bureau of the Census show that in 1946 the national government collected some eighty per cent of all the taxes paid in the United States.

Collections by the Federal government for that year, in round figures, totaled forty billion dollars. Collections by State governments amounted to a little less than five billions.

Thus the total tax sum extracted from the citizens of the country by the national government was four times that taken by all the State and local governments.

Direct Conflict
This is in direct conflict with the principles of self-government as pursued by our country in its earlier history when local taxes, spent for essential local purposes, were the principal contributions of the citizenship to government. It is in direct contradiction, also, to the purpose of the government's founders to avoid concentration of power in the central government for control of the purse is control of the government.

The persistent and growing drain of taxation by the general government is one of the most serious threats to the efficient functioning of local government, which sooner or later must find its citizenship unable to cope with the double burden of excessive Federal taxes and increasing local taxes. For this reason alone, all citizens interested in the welfare of their local communities and concerned for their own protection against impossible tax burdens, should join in demanding an immediate reduction in Federal levies at least to the extent provided in the measure just passed by the House of Representatives.

WASHINGTON CALLING

tary Robert Lovett to plead with Speaker Joseph Martin the terrible urgency of action. If the holiday schedule is adhered to and if the House persists in making the recovery bill into a six-ring circus, the program can hardly be adopted before June.

Republicans of the Wherry-Jenner type are obviously counting on democratic bankruptcy in November. They are counting on sliding into the White House by default.

But they should begin to understand that there is a growing suspicion of something like bankruptcy in the Republican party. That is the meaning of the persistent belief, evidence in wide sections of the population, that in spite of his firm no, Gen. of the Army Dwight D. Eisenhower may still be drafted to serve his country in the White House.

This is an astonishing political phenomenon that the old leaders of the old parties cannot ignore. Why, even Henry Wallace (Henry has, of course, said everything on every side of every subject) stated publicly that Eisenhower would sweep the country and, in office, would be more likely than any other available candidate to prevent a military dictatorship.

Deep down in the common sense of the American people is an understanding that this is not the time for cynical politicians to slide into power by default. That is behind the wistful hope of millions of Americans that in some way a man of greatness, and they put Eisenhower in the hero's shrine—can lead the country out of danger and division.

Delay Is Likely On Charges In Dr. Condon Case

Atomic Spy Probe
May Interfere With Early Date Hearing

WASHINGTON, March 10. — (INS)—Rep. Nixon (R) Calif., declared today that the New York grand jury investigation of Communist atomic spy activity may force delay in Congressional hearings on charges made against Dr. Edward U. Condon.

Nixon emphasized, however, that public hearings by the House Un-American Activities Committee will be conducted "full and fairly" but that the final decision as to the date is up to Chairman Thomas (R) N. J., who is recuperating from his recent illness.

Nixon heads the Un-American Activities subcommittee which is questioning commerce department officials behind locked doors on the loyalty board proceedings which cleared the noted atomic scientist. He said that hearings while the grand jury still is in session might prove "prejudicial" to Dr. Condon.

Parallel Interests

The congressman commented: "There are phases of the Condon hearing in which the grand jury is not interested but there are also parallel interests involved which I feel the committee should not consider while it is in session. "It would simply be prejudicial to everyone, including Dr. Condon, to have facts being considered by a grand jury in secret brought out in public."

The California also said that it might prove confusing to open the House hearings as requested by Dr. Condon if the President's loyalty board decides to investigate the findings made in an Un-American Activities subcommittee report.

TENT HALL

MUNN-TAYLOR

The home of Rev. and Mrs. E. F. Munn was the scene of a wedding of simplicity, but beauty, when their daughter, Anna May, was married to Edward Taylor, son of Mrs. Catherine Taylor, and the late Robert Taylor, of Westlake, O.

In the living room a lovely setting for the wedding was provided by a background of a vase of stalk white snapdragons and calla lilies with palms, and the ceremonial tapers, which were lighted for the ceremony.

The father of the bride, Rev. E. F. Munn, performed the double ring ceremony at 4:30 Saturday afternoon, in the presence of the immediate families.

The bride wore a lovely gray silk dress of street length, and wore a veiled hat of silver sequins. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses and narcissus. Her sister, Miss Dorothy Munn, was her bridesmaid and was lovely in aqua crepe with gold sequin hat and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses.

Miss Mary Munn, also a sister of the bride, provided the nuptial music at the piano, which was "The Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn.

Larry Taylor was best man for his brother.

William Munn accompanied his sister and gave her in marriage.

Following congratulations, the guests proceeded to the dining room where a three course dinner was served.

Those from a distance present were his mother, Mrs. Catherine Taylor and his sister Helen.

The bride is a graduate of Union high school, served in the Waves during the war and has been attending Youngstown College. He is with the Ingle's greenhouse at Youngstown.

After the young couple return from a honeymoon, they will be at home in their newly furnished home at Pyatt street, Youngstown.

SHOWER

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Spellick, a recent bride and groom, gave them a miscellaneous shower Saturday evening in the Lowellville city hall.

During the evening, round and square dancing was enjoyed. At the close of the evening, a delicious lunch was served to over 100.

The young couple received a number of lovely and useful gifts for their new home.

OYSTER SUPPER

The Men's Bible class and a few friends were entertained at an oyster supper Friday evening at the home of their teacher, C. L. Carlisle.

Old Time Tin Workers Meet

Gather At Sylvan Heights
At Informal Smoker
Tuesday Night

MEET OFFICIALS OF NEW PLANT HERE

Old time tin workers of New Castle met the officials of the Valley Manufacturing company Tuesday night when an informal smoker was held in the Sylvan Heights golf club house. There were a few speeches, some solos, some group singing and an excellent lunch. But most important of all there was an air of friendliness at the smoker that made the evening a success.

The program opened with the group singing "America" followed by a prayer by Rev. Thomas J. Jones, pastor of First Congregational church.

Short Addresses
All the addresses were short, and all of them were in the same vein, friendliness. Captain Roger W. Rowland opened the speaking, followed by Lewis Morris, Harry Rees of Pittsburgh, David S. Pyle, Attorney William E. Lewis of Youngstown, William Leyshon and John Leyshon of Farrell and Ivor V. Davis, president of the Greater New Castle Association.

Mr. Rees, a former New Castle man, is general superintendent of motive power for the Baltimore & Ohio railroad in Pittsburgh. Mr. Pyle is the former general manager of the Shenango plant, John Leyshon is a former tin worker in India, and Mr. Morris worked with John C. Griffin, workers manager of the Valley Manufacturing company in Conneville, when Mr. Griffin was leading his tin plate career.

Co-operation Appreciated
Mr. Griffin spoke as did Howard Thomas, assistant treasurer, and Frank Oppenheimer, superintendent of the plant. All of them expressed appreciation of the cordial treatment they have received in New Castle. Mr. Thomas mentioned the co-operation of the Greater New Castle Association most favorably.

Dave Lewis and Earl Hammond pleased with solos, with John M. Evans at the piano. Louis B. Round led the crowd in group singing.

Another New Castle man, who worked with Mr. Griffin many years ago, Evan Lewis, was present but because of a recent illness was unable to speak. His remarks were for him.

Following the program Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Haycock, in charge of Sylvan Heights, laid a cold plate lunch that was tasty and appreciated.

In the group were many veteran tin workers who helped start the tin mills here. They reminisced of the other days, and enjoyed Mr. Griffin's talk on the development of the tin plate industry from the old hand mill style to the present fast strip mill method.

Designed to extend a friendly greeting to the men of the Valley Manufacturing company, the smoker seemed to accomplish its purpose in fine style.

MELODRAMA ENACTED FOR BESSEMER CLUB

"Only an Orphan Girl", an old-time melodrama in four acts presented by the Little Theater of Westminster College, featured the March program of Bessemer Woman's club in the Bessemer high school auditorium Tuesday evening.

In costume and with gusto the cast enacted the very humorous piece in truly melodramatic style and their presentation drew much laughter and enthusiastic applause from the audience.

Those who took part were Edwin Good as the villain, Jewell Jennings as the orphan, James Fudge, Len Fuge, Delores Nieman, Louise Hendricks, Maryellen Cipolla, and Marjorie Losetter.

The performers were introduced by Mrs. John F. Fife, program chairman.

Music was furnished by the Statesmen's quartet from the college. Edwin Good, James Fudge, Frank Daryl, and Robert Lane. They sang before the play and during intermissions with Mr. Lane also leading the audience in group singing.

During business, with Mrs. Ralph Engle presiding, three new members were received into the club, Mrs. Joseph Gilmore, Mrs. Margaret Craig, and Mrs. Larry Troy.

Annual reports were given and the slate of officers proposed by the nominating committee was read.

Tea was served in the basement of Bessemer Presbyterian church at the close of the evening by the social committee with Mrs. Harry Smith, Jr., chairman.

Next meeting will be April 13, a guest night program in the high school when the a cappella choir of New Castle senior high school will present a program.

TO DISCONTINUE WEEKLY SEWINGS

May Deport Niles Resident To Russia

NILES, O., March 10.—(INS)—Leonid Nikolaev, alias Leon Callow, 52, of Niles, today awaited action by U. S. immigration and naturalization service officials on the possibility he may be deported to his native Russia.

Callow was released on $1000 bond after his arrest by immigration officers.

He is charged with being a member of an organization which seeks overthrow of the government by force. A federal warrant seeks his deportation.

No date has been set for a formal hearing in the case. He was arrested in 1934 in Niles for allegedly distributing Communist literature.

Near Agreement For Western Europe Union

BRUSSELS, March 10.—(INS)—Five European nations reached agreement today on the main points of a treaty aimed at laying the basis for a union of western Europe.

The conference is expected to end tomorrow or Friday, at which time a communiqué summing up the pact's essential points will be issued.

At the moment, one of the few points still under discussion is the treaty's preamble.

Chief Belgian delegate Fernand Van Langenhove said that representatives of the five powers, now meeting in Brussels, had reached an accord "on all outstanding points."

The five nations are France, Britain, Belgium, the Netherlands, and Luxembourg.

Singing Evangelist Continues Services

Rev. W. H. Brand, dynamic Gospel singer and evangelist, who opened a two week series of meetings Sunday, in the Alliance Gospel Tabernacle, 210 Pearson street, will continue his Gospel sermons in the church tonight at 7:30 o'clock. He will precede his address with the singing of two Gospel solos.

Friday night, which will be youth night, the children from the Neighborhood House will sing, while Rev. Brand will be heard in "The Holy City" and "The Lord's Prayer" as vocal solos.

Lions See Film On

WHEELING, W. Va., March 10.—(INS)—It appeared probable today, following dismissal of a gambling case against William "Big Bill" Lias, that all remaining cases in Wheeling's biggest gambling scandal would be tossed out of court.

The cases of Lias and an unidentified person listed only as "John Doe" were dropped yesterday. Previously Judge D. A. McKee then directed a verdict of acquittal in the case of Tony Zambitto.

The Zambitto-Lias-Doe case had been considered the strongest of all the gambling cases which began with indictment of 27 persons by the October, 1947, grand jury in Wheeling.

Indictments in eight cases were nolle-prossed last week. Soon after the indictments were returned, two operators of horse books—Harry Weiditz and Harry Clouse—drew fines of $800 each on pleas of guilty.

"The Uncommercial Traveler" was a series of papers written by Charles Dickens for "All the Year Round", from Jan. 28 to Oct. 13, 1860.

SEVENTH WARD PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McCann of West Clayton street have received word from their daughter and son-in-law, Lieut. and Mrs. Robert Ricker and family, that they have moved from Vallejo, into their new home in San Francisco, Calif., where Lt. Ricker is now stationed. He is attached to the medical corps.

William G. Sapper of 616 West Clayton street is confined to his home and is quite ill.

Mrs. T. J. LaRock of West Madison avenue has returned after concluding a visit with relatives in Dover, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Graziani have returned to their home in Cleveland after visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Augustine, North Ashland avenue and Mr. and Mrs. A. Graziani of Butler avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Antoline and daughter, Lorraine, of Monaca, have returned after visiting in the home of Mrs. Antoline's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Rainey, of Darlington avenue.

Mrs. Ber Ford, of 302 North Cedar street has received word that her mother, Mrs. Samuel Evans, of Youngstown, formerly of this city, who has been very ill, is somewhat improved.

Ivan (Pete) Groce, of North Liberty street, with pilot Paul Johnson of New Castle airport made a plane trip to Pittsburgh and Cleveland on Tuesday.

Mrs. William M. King and son, William Jr., of North Cedar street, were visitors in Pittsburgh on Tuesday.

United States railroads have now ordered enough smart lightweight passenger cars to put about 530 new streamliners into service, according to the American Railway Car Institute.

Today's Question About Red Cross

What does the Red Cross do for disaster victims?

The first move is to provide shelter, food and clothing, plus medical and nursing care. After the emergency the Red Cross will meet those disaster-stricken needs that are beyond the cash, credit and other resources of the family.

House Un-American Committee Is Voted $200,000 Expenses

WASHINGTON, Mar. 10.—(INS)—The House voted Tuesday to give the House Un-American Activities Committee another $200,000 to continue its investigations.

The new funds, to be used during the remainder of the calendar year, brought to more than one million dollars the money furnished to the committee during the ten years of its existence.

Opponents of the additional appropriation charged that the committee in an effort to stir up support in the House for more funds attacked Dr. Edward U. Condon, atomic scientist.

Condon has been accused by an Un-American Activities Subcommittee of associating with Soviet agents and of being "one of the nation's weakest links in atomic security."

William Hupp To Join Navy's Air Combat Crew

Chief Machinist's Mate S. E. Boudin of the New Castle Navy recruiting station announces that another New Castle youth has been selected for specialty training as a Navy "combat air crewman." William Clair Hupp, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Wilkins of this city, Hupp's mental and physical fitness allowed him to be enlisted in this exacting branch of the naval service.

Upon completion of recruit training at the Great Lakes naval training center, Illinois, he will be transferred to Jacksonville, Fla. for an intensive training period in the specialty duties of the combat air crewmen.

DAIRY CATTLE MAY NEED EXTRA MINERALS

Do cows need minerals? If so, what, how much, and how should they be fed?

Salt is needed by all cattle and should be fed regularly every day. It can be mixed in the grain, 1 or 1 1/4 pounds per hundred pounds of feed. If grain is fed according to milk production, heavy milking cows will receive the most grain and, therefore, the most salt. For cows housed in a shed a salt box also is a good way to feed salt. A combination of salt in the grain and in a salt box for cows requiring extra salt makes a good combination. Salt blocks may be used for heifers, for dry cows, or as a supplement to salt in the grain mixture.

High-quality roughage, with a liberal amount of legumes, is a good source of calcium. Phosphorus is found in liberal quantities in bran, cottonseed meal, linseed oil meal, and soybean meal. Dairymen feeding high-quality hay with some of the above-named ingredients in the grain mixture need worry much about extra minerals.

When roughage is of poor quality, or if cows are high producers, it may be necessary to feed extra minerals. Steamed bone meal or dicalcium phosphate are good sources of both calcium and phosphorus and may be added to the grain mixture at the rate of 1 or 2 pounds per hundred pounds of feed.

It is usually advisable to add minerals at the above-mentioned rate in calf and heifer grain mixtures and also mixtures for dry cows.

Minor elements, such as iron, copper, and cobalt, are not generally deficient in Pennsylvania. If there are any specific areas or farms where cobalt might be deficient specific recommendations should be made to remedy the situation.

CHILD'S SMILE MAY SAY MORE THAN THANK YOU

Most mothers are concerned about their children learning to be courteous and polite. They start early telling them to say "please" and "thank you," often withholding something the child wants in order to get him to say "please." Some parents go so far as to insist that children say "Yes, Ma'am" and "No, Ma'am," never stopping to consider that adults seldom use these words.

Shyness and emotional excitability are frequently the cause of children not being so courteous and polite as they know how to be. A feeling of security and friendliness will help to bring out their thoughtfulness.

Too often mothers concern themselves with the outward expression of politeness instead of the inner feeling that a child should have which calls forth an expression of gratitude. A smile or a chirp of excitement may actually express more appreciation than a forced "thank you." When a child has a feeling of consideration for others, then it is time to give him the tools for expressing this feeling.

New Opportunities For Former Veterans

Men With Previous Experience Can Enlist With Famous Seventh Infantry Combat Team

Lawrence county men who served in any of the Armed Forces during World War II will find it worth their while to investigate a new opportunity for qualified veterans to enlist in the Army for service with the famous 7th Infantry Regimental Combat Team of the 3rd Infantry Division, M/Sgt. Charles P. Walsh said here today.

Recently authorized by the Department of the Army, this new enlistment opportunity makes it possible for men with prior service who meet prescribed qualifications to enlist in the Army in a grade appropriate to their training and length of service. They will be assigned to this combat team for a minimum of three years. The 7th RCT is now stationed at Fort Benning, Ga.

The division holds battle credit for Tunisia, Sicily, Naples-Foggia, Rome-Arno, Southern France, Rhineland, and Central Europe campaigns. It served on occupation duty in Germany until August 1946, when it returned to the United States.

For additional details on this and other U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force enlistment opportunities, M/Sgt. Charles P. Walsh said, may be obtained locally at the Recruiting Station, located in Room 202, Post Office Building, New Castle, Penna. or phone 7593.

Warns Slavs About Communist Meetings

PITTSBURGH, March 10.—(INS)—Allegheny County Court Judge Blair F. Gunther, anti-Communist Slavic leader, in a strong statement today warned American Slavs against attending functions sponsored by the American Slav Congress.

He urged specifically that a rally and concert to be held Thursday in Carnegie Music Hall in Pittsburgh be boycotted by American Slavs. Judge Gunther said: "Every cent to be collected at this rally will further the Communist revolutionary cause," adding:

"The promotion of a concert as a means of raising funds from music lovers to be diverted to the Communist cause is just as perverse as the use of Carnegie Hall by this political scum."

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD

International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, March 10.—(INS).—If you think the world in general is all fouled-up, then you ought to hang ears a moment with a king-size woman from Boston. Her name is Sally Creighton—and she has more problems than a math professor.

Lands Tough Job
Sally landed one of Hollywood's toughest assignments today. The Boston woman has been hired to teach British-born and bred Roland Culver to speak like a southern colonel in a new Paramount flicker.

Culver, who has never portrayed anything but English gent on the silver screen, is the hottest British acting importation in a fortnight of Fridays.

"But this, old bean," he declared, "is indeed a challenge. I tell you... you-all, that is!"

Real Linguist
Miss Creighton's main vocation is making with five foreign languages on the radio. But she collects much extra money instructing movie stars how to palaver for extracting film roles. Her parents, between them, could speak in seven tongues.

Sally—six-foot two with eyes of blue—has chosen a Tennesseean inflection for Culver. He portrays a retired colonel, circa 1910, in an unnamed southern city.

Sally said: "Most of Roland's trouble is with his O's. Cultured Britishers pronounce their O's something like ow, but not quite."

"He says throwne—something like crown—instead of throne, like thrown."

The grammar gal smiled and admitted: "I guess this gets more involved all the time."

And Roland Culver piped up: "It sho' does, sugah!"

GOES TO ST. LOUIS
Jacob C. Wachtman, executive vice president of the Greater New Castle Association, left Tuesday night for St. Louis, Mo. Mr. Wachtman will attend a marketing conference called in St. Louis by the United States Chamber of Commerce.

Although fish produce thousands, or even millions, of eggs every year only one or two of the offspring lives long enough to reach full productive maturity.

Lucille McKissick Chosen May Queen

Miss Lucille McKissick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray McKissick, former residents of this city, has been chosen May queen of Kittanning, Pa., high school, according to word received in this city.

Miss McKissick, an attractive senior at the school, was chosen by popular vote to reign as queen on May 7. The role is not new to her as she served as maid of honor to a previous queen and before that served as an attendant.

REMODELLING APARTMENTS
Andrew Pfahles, local contractor, is remodeling the Penn apartments, the improvement of which is estimated to cost $23,000. According to attaches at the city bureau of building, there had been an over-roof, which was raised some time ago. It is now planned to put apartments on the third floor.

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ-laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. Lilienthal testified before the committee in connection with a threatened strike at the huge Oak Ridge, Tenn., atomic plant now operated under contract by Carbide & Carbon Chemicals Corp.

President Truman has appointed a board of inquiry to report on the dispute between the company and the Atomic Trades and Labor Council, A.L.F.

Lilienthal told the committee he had talked with CIO President Philip Murray and AFL President William Green and that they agreed emphatically that continuity of work at atomic plants is of vital importance.

Expect Boost For China Aid

Testimony Of Gen. Chennault Awaited

WASHINGTON, March 10. — (INS)—Supporters of American military aid for China looked to Maj. Gen. Claire L. Chennault to strengthen their position when he testifies today before the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

The flying general, who arrived in Washington Monday from Shanghai, is expected to urge strongly broadening the administration's $70 million dollar Chinese aid program to include military assistance.

The committee plans to begin writing its foreign aid bill tomorrow after hearing Chennault. His testimony, requested by the committee, came at a time when Republican leaders in Congress were split over procedure.

Sen. Vandenberg (R) Mich., who is pushing the European recovery program through the Senate, was reported to feel that the House group's decision to include in the legislation aid to China and additional funds for Greece and Turkey would seriously delay enactment of the foreign aid bill.

Plan For Further Merger Of Jewish Palestine Forces

By BENN FELLER

(U. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

JERUSALEM, March 10. — A plan to include the militant underground Stern gang in the Hagana-Irgun alliance and thereby consolidate Jewish forces in Palestine was reported getting underway today.

Hagana has already drawn up a cooperation pact with the extremist Irgun Zvai Leumi, in what was believed to be a preparatory move for a possible showdown battle with the Arabs.

The Hagana-Irgun alliance which was hailed by Holy Land Jews as "the best news since partition was voted," will be signed today.

The Sternists, however, who are said to number only between 400 to 500, have not yet joined the alliance.

Forthcoming parleys between Hagana and the Sternists scheduled to be held in Tel Aviv, are expected to complete the consolidation of Jewish fighting groups.

Signing of the Hagana-Irgun agreement will take place after the Jewish Agency ratifies the pact this morning.

McKeesport Woman Reported Kidnapped

McKEESPORT, Pa., March 10. — (INS)—Police reported today that blonde, 24-year-old Miss Joan Papp, of McKeesport, had been kidnapped by a man who forced her to drive away in her own convertible coupe.

Police said a brother of the girl, Joseph, told them a neighbor witnessed the kidnapping early this morning, and identified the "kidnapper" as Wilford Jenkins, 31, another neighbor.

The neighbor told Joseph he saw Jenkins push the girl back in her car when she started to get out near a tavern of which she was part owner, and jump in the car. He said Miss Papp struggled vainly with the assailant.

The kidnapping occurred about 4 a. m.

The brother, Joseph, said he knew Jenkins and had helped set him up in the confectionery business. He added he had started a court action against Jenkins to recover the money, and that since members of the family had received telephone threats to drop the suit.

Good Taste

By FRANCINE MARKEL

THE PRIME VIRTUE IN HUSBAND OR WIFE

"What do you consider the prime virtue in a husband or a wife? We were discussing this subject the other evening. One girl specified faithfulness; another generosity but I still cling to my theory that kindness is the most important. What do you say?"

Answer: Aside from love, without which few marriages can be happy or lasting, the three items mentioned in your letter are, combined, the greatest factors toward a happy marriage.

Viewing these attributes to find the most important individually, I pick kindness. A kind husband or wife has respect for the feelings of his or her mate. Nagging, that destroyer of marital happiness, will then have no place in the household.

More married life is ruined by nagging than by flagrant acts of inconstancy. Many a pillar of the church who has never looked at another woman with more than the coldest indifference has wrecked the nerves of his devoted wife by repeated sarcasm. Many a paragon of wifely virtue has driven her husband to more amiable women by repeatedly picking at him, either facetiously or seriously. These annoyances are especially resented when perpetrated in the presence of guests. And guests are not likely to repeat a visit to the home of a nagging husband or a nagging wife. It is the habit of some husbands and wives to treat each other with perfect amiability when they are together but to gain courage for sniping each other only when visitors are with them. If kindness and mutual respect prevail between a wedded pair, this cannot happen.

Miss Markel will promptly mail personal answers to questions from any reader enclosing a self-addressed stamped envelope.

Chicago Printing Shop Dynamited

CHICAGO, March 10. — (INS)—A dynamite bomb explosion early today wrecked a Chicago printing shop and routed more than 100 tenants in the neighborhood.

The terrific blast blew in the rear door and front windows of the Dependable Printing Co., and shattered windows of buildings for a block on both sides of the street. John Camp, owner of the printing shop, denied he had any labor trouble. He said he did not set ads for Chicago daily newspapers where printers have been on strike since Nov. 24.

Public Hearings Are To Be Held On Poll Tax Measure

WASHINGTON, March 10. — (INS)—The Senate Rules Committee voted five to two today to hold public hearings on anti-poll tax legislation—one of the measures in President Truman's civil rights program which touched off a revolt of southern Democrats.

Opposed only by Sens. Ives (R) N. Y., and Jenner (R) Ind., the committee yielded to a request by Sen. Stennis (D) Miss., to have four days of open hearings within the next ten days.

It was learned that two Republicans, Sens. Knowland (R) Calif., and Lodge (R) Mass., joined committee Democrats in supporting the plea made by Stennis in behalf of 21 "Dixie" senators.

The full committee overrode its subcommittee, composed of Sens. Jenner (R) Ind., Bricker (R) Ohio, and Myers (D) Pa., which approved the anti-poll tax legislation unanimously, and refused to receive a statement from Stennis.

Huge Damage Suit Against Teamsters Union In Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH, March 10. — (INS)—A $500,000 damage suit was filed today against AFL General Teamsters, Local 249, in Federal court at Pittsburgh by May Department Stores Co.

The firm, which operates Kaufmann's Department Store in Pittsburgh, charged the union with ignoring the company's consent to arbitrate two grievances which resulted in a ten-day strike of 200 drivers handling package deliveries.

The workers are protesting a change in the five-day work week, and also insist on cancellation of a route supervisor system.

Labor Standards Association, representing Kaufmann's, claims the company agreed to arbitrate both issues at a meeting yesterday.

Virtually all other employees of the store, members of CIO and AFL unions, have remained at work, the company said.

Garbed in a new Spring outfit which consisted largely of a necktie that had the spectrum doing nip-ups, Horatius Q. McGiverty, (of the Spring Hill McGiverty's) dropped in at the garage today with an announcement.

"It's Spring," said Mr. McGiverty, "or nearly so and the weather today is a reasonable fac-similar (sic). It seems to me," he continued, "this is the time of year when a lot of truck operators should be up and doing, that is up to your garage and doing business with a new Federal truck.

TAFT-HARTLEY INFLUENCE
NEW YORK—(INS)—A drastic reduction in the number of idle days caused by strikes in the shipping industry last year is attributed to the Taft-Hartley Act. That's the finding in a recent issue of the Shipping Survey, published by the Association of American Ship Owners. It was pointed out that during 1947 roughly 100,000 man days of idleness are estimated to have been caused by strikes. There were 5,240,000 idle man days in 1946.

Eighteen Suffer Injuries In Crash Of Pennsy Trains

None Seriously Injured In Philadelphia Tunnel Approaching Suburban Station

PHILADELPHIA, March 10.—(INS)—Eighteen persons were hurt last night when two Pennsylvania railroad trains crashed head-on in the tunnel approaching the suburban station in Philadelphia. The trains, one of which was carrying 200 passengers, were of the self-powered coach type, without locomotives.

The crash occurred several hundred yards from the station. The passengers were on the inbound train from Wilmington, Del. The outbound train consisted of three empty coaches.

R. E. Martin, 48, engineer of the passenger train, was taken to Hahnemann hospital for X-rays of leg and back injuries. His cab was wrecked.

The crash shattered windows of the passenger train. Standing passengers were thrown down and others were tossed from their seats. A railroad spokesman said the casualties were 15 passengers and three train crewmen. None was said to be hurt seriously.

Liquor Agent Is Shot Through Foot

WHEELING, W. Va., March 10.—(INS)—Wheeling police today were holding West Virginia Liquor Commission Agent William F. Phillips after he admitted shooting another agent through the right foot during a party in a Wheeling hotel Tuesday night.

The other agent, Eugene W. Miller, Lookout, W. Va., was reported in "good condition" in a hospital. A Wheeling detective said Phillips claimed he shot Miller accidentally when he discharged his pistol, thinking it was empty. The bullet passed through Miller's foot, shattering several bones.

WESLEY GARAGE FIRE DOES $20,000 DAMAGE

WESLEY, Pa., March 10.—(INS)—Fire officials today blamed an explosion of gasoline for flames which swept the Wesley (Erie county) garage yesterday, causing damage estimated at $20,000.

Three trucks were destroyed in the blaze.

The garage was owned by Harold McMurphy of Barkeyville.

Republican Party Chairman Stresses Cutting Of Taxes

Carroll Reece, In Philadelphia Speech, Says Income Tax Cut Will Come Despite Veto

PHILADELPHIA, March 10.—(INS)—Republican National Chairman Carroll Reece predicts taxes will be cut this year despite any possible veto by President Truman.

The GOP chairman, in an address last night to the Bulletin Forum, said the Republican party is "determined to reduce taxes, despite the reverses sustained last year because of an outrageous misuse of the executive veto."

Paying Too Much

Reece charged that "we are literally paying more to be governed than we are paying to eat." He called for a reduction in expenditures to accompany tax reduction. He added:

"A continuation of the high tax and free spending policies—of the Truman administration—are dangerous." Reece said, "not only to our economic system, but to the basic structure of our government itself."

HELICOPTER COP
CHICAGO.—(INS)—Cook County police are cooperating with Station WMA in a project to direct auto traffic via helicopter and radio. The experiment proved successful recently in minimizing holiday traffic jams and has been presented for consideration to the Chicago city council. A helicopter crew hovered over highway routes and relayed its findings, together with suggestion of less-congested thoroughfares to the WMAQ newsroom. This information was broadcast at 15-minute intervals during critical traffic hours.

Bernstein To Lead Pittsburgh Symphony
PITTSBURGH, March 10.—(INS)—The announcement that Leonard Bernstein, 28-year-old conductor-composer, will lead the Pittsburgh Symphony for seven weeks next year was greeted with approval today by Pittsburghers.

Bernstein will begin his tenure next Jan. 24. He will conduct the orchestra for three weeks in Pittsburgh and take it in its fourth week southern tour.

Bernstein first appeared in Pittsburgh in 1944. Dr. Fritz Reiner invited him to conduct his own symphony, "Jeremiah," which that year won the New York music critics' circle prize for the best orchestral composition of the season. His ballet, "Fancy Free," was considered the best ballet of the same year.

He also appeared with the Pittsburgh Symphony in 1945 as conductor and piano soloist.

Frankie Lentine, Youngstown 118 pound open GG champion vs Willie Epps, Girard, 118.
Jimmy O'Hara, Youngstown GG middleweight open champion vs George Grant, Niles, 160.
Tex Martin, Youngstown novice 135 pound champion vs Freddy Mays, Niles, 135.
Risieri Ronzi, heavyweight open heavyweight champion vs Sam Santafante, Struthers, 220.

Punch will be on display tonight in the arena when Sam Santafante and Risieri Ronzi, 220 and 190 pounds, respectively, exchange punches in the last bout of an eight-battle amateur fistic promotion, which starts at 8:30 p. m.

Neither is blessed with science, but both do on swing, hence rights and lefts, which include jabs, hooks and crosses, will be dealt out promiscuously, and a knockout is not without the realm of possibility.

They battled fiercely several weeks ago in Warren, with the decision going to Risieri. Both being engaged in the collar, they engaged in an impromptu battle in a dressing-room after the legalized affair was staged.

Four District GG Champs
Risieri is the open heavyweight open champion of Youngstown. He fought in the Cleveland Golden Gloves tournament but lost out to Willie Campbell, who is trained by Johnny Papke, one of Jimmy Dunn's former proteges.

Martin scored a TKO over Lou Quinn of Youngstown here, February 4, while Jimmy O'Hara won his Youngstown crown by beating Matt Brown. Lentine captured a verdict over Jim Pittipaldo, Warren, to take his 118 title.

Eddie Such lost two fights, one at Youngstown and the other here to John Murrell of Youngstown. The fight here was vicious, and good. He is matched to box Bob McNally, Ursulin high school graduate of Youngstown tonight.

The doors will open at 7:30 p. m. and the first amateur fight will begin promptly at 8:30 p. m. with the Jefferson A. C. as promoter.

Recreation Tourney To Continue Tonight

New Castle's Recreation Tourney got underway before a good crowd at the Washington High floor on Monday night and play will be resumed tonight with three more games.

The first game on the card will start promptly at 6:45 p. m. When the Penn Quakers of the National Division meet the Katz Juniors of the Mahoning Division.

The Penn Quakers are made up of the following players: Anthony Marino, Joseph Lovaglio, David Rich, Edward Horney, Donald Joseph Darrell Leiberger, George Whitzel, Steve Carnosa, Richard Beatrice, Don Piano.

The Katz Juniors are made up of the following players: Mike Carbone, Louis Mattes, Mike Cangey, Ugo Fiorante, Dominick Santo, Marion Quahliero, Tony Lettera.

Mumblers vs Sharpshooters
The second game will be a play-off game between the Mumblers and Sharpshooters for the right to represent the American Division for the Junior championship.

The Mumblers are made up of the following players: Nick Passias, Bill Shewman, Phil Greenberg, Dan Dugan, Ralph Frew, Bob Brinton, Willis Peacock and Richard Black.

The Sharpshooters are made up of the following players: Ralph Manzo, Sam Cook, Norm Cook, Pat Colaluca, Harry DeRosa, Jack McGaffie, Joe Malley and Gene Di-Santi.

The third game is a play-off game between the Red Pythons and Shamrocks of the American Division for the right to play the Hawks for the Senior League championship. The Red Pythons are made up of the following players: Arnold Lewis, Bill Lowery, Tom Hares, Jack Thompson, Greg Thomas, Roy Morrow, Bill Ralph, Dave Sontag, Tom Snyder and Dick O'Nash.

The Shamrocks are made up of the following players: Don Fee, Leo Carrigan, Joe Murphy, Joe Mossaro, Kevin Burns.

A small admission fee of 10c for students and 2c for adults will be charged in order to help defray expenses.

Edenburg Signs Pair Of Hurlers

Manager Ralph Ferrucci of the Edenburg Tigers announced today that he has signed two new pitchers for the 1948 season. They are Joe Hairhogger, Jr., who hurled for the Wampum club last year, and Will Gadwell, ex-Beaver Valley loop right-hander.

Hairhogger, besides his mound talent, is also a fine fielder and heavy hitter.

Ferrucci also announced that he has hopes of signing Orin Vance of New Galilee, a promising young infielder, speedy and a good hitter.

"Our main concern this year is bolstering our pitching staff," said the Tiger pilot, "we have a good hitting club and our fielding compares with that of any of the other clubs. We'll be right in the thick of things this year. We're going to climb."

Wings Defeat Rebels, 34-32

DIRECTOR HAS METHOD TO STOP OAGE 'TALL BOYS'

ERIE, Pa., March 10.—(INS)—Another idea for reducing the advantage of height in basketball has been offered by Eddie Abramowski, athletic director at Erie Technical high school.

Abramowski, who has conducted a number of experiments on the problem in the past seven years, would have the ball called dead after a missed free throw. It would then be given to the offending player out of bounds at the spot where fouled, thus eliminating the possibility of an unusually tall player on either team recovering the rebound.

This, and other, of Abramowski's experiments of the past season are expected to be studied by scholastic coaches over the nation.

Pulaskis Smother Tourney Team, 44-8
Find Selves Booked For Four Games Saturday In East Liverpool Tourney

"We could have shut them out easily," Joe Cooper, star forward of the Pulaskis, said today regarding the 44 to 8 win the Pulaskis registered at the East Liverpool tourney last night over the Petheis. It was 23 to 6 at the half. There were no scoring stars for the Oaklanders, the players dividing the points rather evenly.

The Al Gonet coached Pulaskis face a tough Saturday at East Liverpool tourney, being slated for four games, providing they keep on winning. The first game will start at 1:30 o'clock. The team will leave the club at 11:30 o'clock.

Gonet stated. The locals will probably face either Westminster or Ohio Wesleyan in the finals if they get by the first three games Saturday. The Pulaskis were the champs of the tourney last year.

Expect Shipment Of Ringnecks Soon

Approximately 100 members of the Lawrence County Sportsman's association, in session at the Courthouse last night, were informed by Fish Protector C. B. White that stocking of trout will begin Thursday and be continued Friday, and additional shipments are expected in the near future.

It was also reported that 100 ringnecks, bought at a cost of $3.75 each from a Minnesota pheasant raiser, will arrive here between March 15 and 20.

Eddie Fritz, Jr., was elected recording secretary due to the resignation of N. N. Jagush.

Three consignments
The trout to be placed in the west branch of the Little Neshannock, at Hermitage, at two p. m. Thursday, number 1,400. They are brook trout.

At 3:30 p. m. Friday there will arrive at the New Castle postoffice 1,400 rainbow trout and 500 brook trout for the Big Run.

At the same time Friday there will arrive at the Pulaski postoffice 1,100 rainbow and 1,100 brook trout for Deer creek.

The fish protector needs aid in helping to stock the trout.

Johnny Sain Last 'Major' Holdout In Senior Loop
Buddy Kerr Of Giants Inks Pact; Browns, Yanks And Reds Win

(By International News Service)
Shortstop Buddy Kerr's signing of his 1948 contract with the New York Giants leaves big Johnny Sain, Boston Brave ace right-hander, as the only "major" holdout left in the senior circuit.

Kerr is believed to have received a $19,000 contract. He asked $20,000.

Sain won 21 games for the third-place Braves in 1947 and reportedly is demanding a near-$20,000 1948 contract.

Harry Taylor, Dodger sophomore fast-ball pitcher, who was a sensation last year before he hurt his arm, warmed up for a few minutes at the Dodgers' Dominican Republic base and Manager Leo Durocher's eyes popped.

The St. Louis Browns, peremptorily relegated to the American league cellar because of their seemingly indiscriminate winter trading, topped the Chicago Cubs 7-0 in Los Angeles.

The world champion New York Yankees tangled with the Detroit Tigers at Lakeland, Fla., and the Bronx Bombers clubbed across five runs in the top of the ninth to edge the Bengalsmen 8-6.

The Cincinnati Reds and the Philadelphia Phillies played at Tampa with Shortstop Eddie Miller playing against his former teammates for the first time since he was traded for "popping off" against the Red management.

Dutch Leonard, whom Manager Ben Chapman already has selected as his opening day pitcher, was rocked for four runs in the first inning. The Reds carried on from there and went on to smother the Phils 13-2.

West Replaces Kiner In Left
HOLLYWOOD, Calif., March 10.—(INS)—Manager Billy Meyer planned to use Nick Strincevich, Vic Lombardi and Elmer Single on the mound today when his Pittsburgh Pirates meet the Chicago White Sox on Hollywood's Gilmore field.

Left Fielder Ralph Kiner, who suffered an injured back Sunday, will remain on the sidelines for the game, but Stan Rolek, whose hand was struck by a ball Monday, will be back at shortstop. Max West will replace Kiner.

With no exhibition game carded, the Pirates spent most of Tuesday sharpening their batting eyes.

Sportsmen Seek Black Marauders
Tonight at seven, members of the Lawrence County Coon & Fox Hunters association are to meet at seven p. m. at the Hillsville underpass on Route 224 to hunt crows.

In addition, non-members who wish to participate in the crow shoot are invited. Only shotguns are allowed and hunters are asked to wear their license. Pump guns with a plug, or only three shells are to be used at a time. Spotters are asked to contact the officers of the association on time.

WALCOTT IN 4-ROUNDER
CHICAGO, March 10.—(INS)—Arnold Cream and Austin Johnson will trade blows in a four-round exhibition fight at Chicago Coliseum tonight.

That is mostly a hollow statement, but Cream, under the stage name of J. J. Walcott, nearly beat Joe Louis for the heavyweight title his last time out, and some 6,000 fans are expected to show up tonight to see if they can figure out how come.

A month or so back, a record Coliseum crowd of more than 8,000 citizens watched Louis in his first post-Walcott appearance, a similar four-round exhibition duel with Bob Foxworth as partner.

Universal Pottery Will Meet Friday

Manager Dutch Hill has asked that all members of the Universal Pottery baseball team of 1947 meet at seven o'clock at the High Spot Friday evening for discussion of the coming season. Any person wishing a tryout with the Universals will be welcomed.

GLASSERS GAIN CLASS A FINAL

Ford City Five Leads Most Of Way In Eliminating Wilkinsburg, 47-40

PITTSBURGH, March 10.—(INS)—With a surprise win over Wilkinsburg, Ford City today was in the WPIAL class A finals against McKeesport.

A crowd of 2,740 fans jammed the Pitt stadium Tuesday night to see the Glassers lead most of the way and dump the Tigers 47-40.

Keeping control of the ball as much as possible, Ford City piled up a 25-14 margin at half-time that Wilkinsburg could never overcome. A last quarter drive brought them within five points of the Glassers, but they couldn't come any closer.

Once again it was Center Ed Halas who paced the victors. He scored 13 points. But, Alex Jaffurs of Wilkinsburg was high for the game with 15 markers.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., March 10.—(INS)—North Catholic High of Pittsburgh, defending basketball champions of the Pennsylvania Catholic Intercollegiate Athletic League, meets Johnstown Catholic at Johnstown Thursday night in the western regional class A final.

The winner will meet the eastern regional champion for the state title March 31.

North Catholic has won the state crown three times in the past five years.

Johnstown reached the western region final by defeating Erie, 49-31, last Saturday night for its nineteenth victory in 21 starts.

Leroy Leslie, center, scored 28 points in that game.

North Catholic has a 17-5 record for the season.

Zill Funeral To Be Held Friday

YOUNGSTOWN, O., March 10.—(INS)—Funeral services will be held Friday for Al Zill, 52, colorful Youngstown fight promoter, who died suddenly Monday night.

Zill, who had been a promoter in Youngstown for 30 years, died of a heart attack soon after parking his car in a downtown parking lot.

His brother, Jimmy, associated with him in a booking agency, was with him at the time.

Survivors include four sisters and two brothers.

WINS MIAMI OPEN
MIAMI, Fla., March 10.—(INS)—Cary Middlecoff of Memphis, Tenn., and former Australian Jim Ferrier, now of San Francisco, held the $10,000 Miami International four-ball golf championship today.

Ferrier and Middlecoff won the championship yesterday when they defeated Ellsworth Vines of Denver and Ed Furgol of Pontiac, Mich., one up on the 36th hole.

FAIR or FOUL

By LAWTON CARVER (INS Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, March 10.—The younger generation will be justified in wondering whether sports idols are more crooked today than they were in the past, or whether officials are more vigilant.

Some of those writers with high foreheads and a lot of brain, not to be confused with sports writers, probably could sit down in a dark corner and write a most engrossing thesis on what we are coming to.

There was a time when a sports scandal was really a scandal. Nowadays a good part of the sports reporting comes out of a police station.

What is it? It can't be that money is so free. In the 1920's they had a sports boom which everybody said wouldn't be duplicated. But there wasn't any exposure worth a nickel.

Perhaps the officials were a little more tolerant of the goings on than they are today.

The expulsion from hockey yesterday of Billy Taylor, of the Rangers, was shocking only to those who sit on the sidelines. Hockey actually has always been suspected because it is perhaps the one sport where you can engineer a fix by fixing only one man—the goalie.

Taylor was not in any way connected with a fix, but the point is he was, according to allegations from the National Hockey League, involved in gambling.

Gamblers Agree
Every gambler around New York will tell every sports writer I told you so.

There is another important angle involved: For every conniving athlete caught, how many get away with gambling? We had the famous National Football League fix in which Frank Fliechok and Merle Hapes were barred. There was the famous Brooklyn basketball scandal. You name the rest.

These are only the players who were caught. How many are getting away with gambling and perhaps involved in fixing?

Right away all of our sports lovers will be inspired to reply to this attack on the sanctity of American sportsdom. Actually it is pretty shabby and in the last five years has deprived itself of the adulation it held in the past.

Or how good was it in the past? You had the Black Sox scandal in baseball. There were fight fixes that made the disbarment of Rocky Graziano appear like a minor matter. The buildup of Primo Carnera was one.

As a sports editor I am the last to start hitting myself on the head about these matters. And the big wonder to me is how the public keeps swallowing all this and insisting upon the integrity of the great American games.

More prizefighters are being killed today than ever before. More exposures are being thrown around the premises, more athletes are being barred all the time.

Like I say, a real smart guy with a high forehead could write a great piece on this. I am just a sports writer. All I know is that it seems to be human nature to cheat. Some guys do and some don't.

Pulaskis Arrange Zubkowsky Benefit

The K. Pulaski "Big Five" will play the Pittsburgh Panther Five at the K. P. hall Sunday in a benefit game for their star center, John Zubkowsky, who enters the Cleveland Clinic for treatment, following basketball season. The Pulaskis Cubs will play a local team in the prelim at 2 o'clock.

In the Pitt Panther lineup will be such well known stars as—Lindy Lauro, Tony Razzano, Leo Skaldany, Bob Plotz, Ralph Short, Bimbo Ceconci, Bernie Barkowski, and others.

No doubt a large crowd will turnout in honor of the clever floor star.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

HAVING died of a heart ailment Monday night, the passing of Al Zill, boxing promoter, will leave a void in Youngstown, because, in the parlance of the ring, he was a "grand guy." Here & There knew him intimately and was proud of his friendship, which was concreted by long years of acquaintance and business dealings. Al broke into the light game decades ago as manager of his brother, Tony, a rugged lightweight. Here & There handled fighters against Zill, namely, Batwing Terry whom Tony stopped at Campbell, and Willie Gradwell in Humbert Hall here, and also at Beaver Falls. Later, in 1923, while writing boxing news for the Cincinnati Times-Star, Here & There met Al again. He had Tony in tow, who was beginning to be the talk of Cincinnati, so it was only natural that, Al should be apprehensive. "How do you think Tony will do with Dutch tonight?" he inquired. Having watched Dutch train at Freddy Bach's gymnasium across the Rhine, we were conversant with his style and physical make-up. "Send Tony out, to knock him out" was the reply. Within a few rounds Tony's vicious punching and aggressiveness accomplished the feat. Later, Al managed Emmett Rocco and promoted boxing in Youngstown. Many of his cards were of a stellar attraction. He got along well with the fistie fraternity and his passing leaves a void in Ohio fight circles.

Walter Ringer, wearing a coat of tan, has arrived home from Florida. While there he took in the horse and dog races and also fished. He said he did well with the horses and broke even on the dogs. He also did well with fishing, he added. Why does a ringneck catapault, straight into the air, when wounded? This, Carl Wallace, local hunter, cannot explain, but he recalled that last fall, with his cockerel, he went hunting in the Putaski road district. His dog put up a bird and Wallace fired. The shot wounded the bird which flew several hundred feet, straight upward, then zoomed downward. He was returning home when he found the ringneck, dead, and without a drop of blood in its body, upon a highway. . . . Sportsmen met last night in the courthouse, and will convene, socially, Tuesday night next, in the Ecclesian club. They are preparing to make the twenty-fifth annual banquet of the Lawrence County Sportsman's Association ($2 per plate for men, women and children) one of the most successful promotions yet held by the association. There will be clear entertainment, displays and awards at 6:30 p. m., April 8, in The Cathedral.

Tonight is punch night in the Palace of Soek, also known as The Arena. Eight bouts, featuring four Youngstown district Golden Glove champions will be displayed. . . . The Gypsy Glen Riding club of Beaver Falls will hold horse shows, June 19 and August 21. . . . John Deni, walker, has obtained a leave of absence from the P. R. R. to train for the Olympic games. He was an alternate on the 1936 team but did not get to make the trip to Berlin. . . . Bruce Scotto of Johnstown, has been named president of the Pennsylvania Pro Football league. . . . With trout stocking under way today, the time is here for those who have lagged, to put their trout rig in condition.

Expect Definite Athletic Policy At Pitt Thursday

PITTSBURGH, March 10. — (INS) — Something definite about the future of athletics at the University of Pittsburgh may be forthcoming Thursday.

That's when the committee of committees—the five man panel named by the board of trustees—makes its report on recommendations of a couple of other committees. Both the others figured out—with diametrically opposed foresight and hindsight—just what was, is and will be wrong with things footballwise, especially, and otherwise, generally with the athletic setup at once-powerful Pitt.
